

Firearms – Transport Declaration

Real Journeys reserves the right to prohibit and/or restrict the carriage and storage of firearms onboard any vessel, vehicle, land or building that it owns or operates. This right is exercised at the sole discretion of the Operations Manager and may be delegated to staff.

Argumentative and/or aggressive customers will not be transported. New Zealand Police shall be notified of aggressive firearms owners.

At all times:

- The Skipper of any vessel and the driver of any coach/van has the right to prohibit and/or restrict the carriage of firearms.
- The safety and comfort of all staff and all customers is of paramount concern. Carriage of firearms may be refused on this basis.
